

Have you achieved a BDA Level 5 (or an equivalent BDA-accredited Level 5) qualification in dyscalculia specialist teaching within the last 3 years?

Yes

No

Were you awarded ATD/APD within the last 3 years?

Yes

No

You will be accepted onto the course, as long as your reference is satisfactory. You will need to provide a copy of both your L5 and ATS/APS certificate

You need to apply for your ATD/APD. You may be offered a conditional place pending outcome. You will need to provide a copy of your certificates and satisfactory reference.

Did you achieve a BDA Level 5 (or equivalent BDA-accredited Level 5) qualification 3+ years ago?

Yes

No

You will need to provide a certificate of course completion plus a thorough CPD log and satisfactory reference. If the CPD log is not thorough enough, we may suggest you complete a BDA Level 5 specialist teacher course.

Have you achieved an equivalent (non-BDA accredited) Level 5 in dyscalculia within the last 3 years?

Yes

No

Was your course completed within 3 years and did it include the minimum criteria of 20 hours of assessed specialist dyscalculia teaching practice, supervised and observed by an assessor/observer holding an active APC?

Yes

No

You will need to provide a certificate of course completion (with unit transcript for the teaching), a satisfactory reference, and thorough CPD log. If the key criteria is met, but CPD log is not thorough enough, we may suggest you complete a BDA Level 5 course.

Do you hold some other SEN-related Level 5, Level 7 or Level 8 qualification (e.g. MA or PhD in SEND)?

Yes

No

We may advise you to complete a BDA Level 5 specialist teacher course.
